

Cassandra Marie Gentry

August 28, 1990 - February 1, 2018

Cassandra Marie Gentry – August 28, 1990 – February 1, 2018

Cassandra Marie Gentry made her entrance into this world in the early morning hours of August 28, 1990 in Pontiac, Michigan and left this earth on February 3, 2018 at the age of 27 at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor. While she lived in many places in southeast Michigan for the last 17 years she called Ann Arbor home.

Cassandra, known as Cassie to her family and Cass to her friends, lived her life at the full speed and was always ready for the next adventure. She had many different jobs throughout her life, but none she enjoyed more than caring for others. She loved people, unless she was with her mother Black Friday shopping, then together they disliked everyone. She loved roller skating and was a member of the Ann Arbor Derby Dimes Roller Derby team for a while, and most recently found her love for disc golf. She would be found in all her free moments out throwing discs at the chains, and even became a PDGA member. Those who had the opportunity to really get to know her knew that she was funny, smart and more than just a little sarcastic, but she was also sensitive and loyal, and easily hurt though she never liked to let it show. She was a loving single mother to her son Caden, and passed her sarcasm and sense of adventure on to him. Her spirit will live on in his jokes and his smile.

Cassandra is survived by her son Caden Gentry, her mother Becky Gentry, her sister Amanda Gentry, her grandmother Helen Gentry, her Uncle Kit Gentry, and the man who was the closest thing to a father she ever had, Jim Rohrborn, along with many other family and friends. In more recent years she had connected with her half-sisters Brooke, Bailey and Bridget and became an aunt. She was predeceased by her grandfather Del Gentry, who I am sure greeted her by calling her Fuzzy, which was his pet name for her because when she was a baby, her hair would always stick straight up.

She came into this world early and left much too soon, but while she was here Cassandra gave her love freely and would do things for others as often as she could, so it is only fitting she died like she lived, giving of herself. Through gifts of life, she was able to help countless others with her final gifts on earth, and will bless the rest of us with gifts of her memory.

Please bring your stories and pictures of her, if you have them, to share with her son.

Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart,
For as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in heart.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your beloved mother, daughter, sister and friend Cassandra. No words could ever convey the pain of your hearts, but our loving Creator and Heavenly Father does know. He has promised that very soon this enemy, death, and all the things that bring our hearts pain will be a distant memory-Revelation 21:3/4. Until then please find comfort in knowing that "He (God) is close to the broken hearted and those crushed in spirit He saves"-Psalm 34:18. It is my hope that these passages along with your loving memories of Cassandra, comfort your hearts and give you a measure of peace during this most difficult time.

“ The first time I met Cassie was at Becky's baby shower. She greeted me at the door with a funny sarcastic greeting as she took my coat. I thought "wow, a miniature version of Becky". She always made me laugh with her sarcasm, humor and quick comebacks.

Beyond the sarcasm and sense of humor was a big heart and a kind and gentle soul. Cassie used to babysit my grandson. He has autism spectrum disorder and was easily frustrated and prone to meltdowns and tantrums. Cassie was the only caregiver he ever had that never had any of these issues with him.

We will miss you Cassie.
