“ Jane- I've never met someone who listens, understands and supports as well as you do. No matter what the situation, you were always there to lend a hand, make a suggestion, or go to bat for our students and staff. Our Independence Hall family will not be the same without you. Thanks for sharing your incredible love and kindness with us. Our students are immensely better for having known you. We will miss seeing you at school but I know your legacy will live on in our hearts and our schools for years to come!

“ Mrs. Rose... thank you so much for welcoming me into Beach with open arms and making my first year there something special. You would be so proud of us as we made the best ham and cheese sliders on Friday and I didn't mess up the recipe! I will miss your jokes about how I am the youngest staff member at Beach... Your laughter, listening ears and contagious humor will be terribly missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family during this difficult time.

Corrina Rotondo - April 08 at 09:11 PM

“ Janey Rosey, you will be missed oh so much. From your exuberant celebration of each holiday season to your very kind and compassionate heart, we know there will be a void. Dave and Caylan, there are no words that can express the depth of sadness I am sure you all are feeling. May you take comfort in the warm memories as she watches over all of you. Caylan, she was so proud of all your accomplishments from skating to teaching, but especially becoming a mom. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Lisa Nickel and family

“ I know I speak on behalf of the Beach Middle School staff and Chelsea Schools family when I state that Jane will be missed terribly. It was tough to see her photo here- we will miss your smile, your laughter, your caring words, your cooking (oh we will miss your cooking) and your ability to see the big picture. Thoughts and prayers to the Straith-Rose family from our family. Nick Angel, Jane's Principal and friend.

“ Oh Janie, you were a joyful delight. You were a favorite of all three of our children , and me too. I picture myself walking into your class on Holiday party day, with you wearing the crazy Christmas ornament hat that I gave you. Both of us just doubled over in laughter. Dave, Caylan and family we are so sorry for your loss. Bless you all and Bless Sweet Jane “ Jane welcomed me to North with open arms. She made me laugh every day at lunch with her quick witt and funny stories. She always saw the good in everyone and wanted to make sure everyone was okay. She even checked up on her old friends when she moved buildings. I will miss Jane and her caring nature. I whole heartedly express my condolences to her family. She spoke highly of you. The last time I saw her, she couldn't say enough about Troy.

Amy - April 08 at 09:45 PM

“ Jane, we will miss you fiercely. Thank you for your kindness and support in the classroom, and the extra love you poured into the kids under your care. Your humor connected with our Ava, and you simply got her. Our hearts are broken today, and we send our heartfelt sympathies to your whole family.

Lisa Hinz-Johnson - April 08 at 09:46 PM

“ God called home an Angel today. I will miss your smile, your kindness, your affection, your heart and soul. You made this world a better place! God welcomed our precious Jane to Heaven today. I love you.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Jane when she began supporting my fifth grade classroom. Jane was always insightful, practical and forthright. I looked forward to each year in which she was assigned to my class. It is with shock and great sadness to hear of her untimely death. My condolences to her loving and loved family and friends.

“ J Ro - You were truly one of kind! Shocked and so deeply saddened by your untimely departure. You were fierce and so full of life. It's just so hard to believe we won't see our Walking Holiday in the halls, hear your hearty laugh, and experience your perfectly timed zingers anymore. Thank you for all the fun stories, your kind and caring concern, and being the most fun person to vent with ever. Dave and Caylan, sending you my deepest sympathies. Yes, Caylan she was so proud of you and always delighted in sharing about Troy. BMS will not be the same and to say you will be missed is an incredible understatement. I will always save a seat for you. Rest in peace, sweet Jane.

“ I worked with Jane while I was a para-professional at Beach Middle school. She was such a great mentor and would always make me laugh. Her seasonal clothes were an inspiration to me and I plan to start my own collection as a teacher. I was happy to work with her, she was always kind and treated you as an equal. I'm so sad about her passing. I wish peace to her family in this difficult time.

Maureen Foley-Becker - April 10 at 07:42 PM

“ Jane-

There are no words, and you know I always have something to say. The only thing I can think to say or that makes any sense to say is... thank you! Thank you for always laughing at the inappropriate times as I do; thank you for always, always saying what others were thinking but did not actually say! Thank you for never letting a moment pass by without making it count. Thank you for always being there no matter if the need be big or small. Thank you for always being someone to talk to and someone who actually listened! Thank you for sharing your experiences, your funny stories, your wit, and your never ending love for life. Thank you for making light of a bad situation; I could use some of that right now! You were a true friend, and I will forever miss you.

Who's your girl-
